As a part of our hotel's elegant decoration in the style of Ottoman palaces, each room is designed around a different talismanic shirt with a unique story. Among all the cultures and civilizations of the city of Istanbul, the Ottoman Empire had the biggest impact on the city's current atmosphere, since it was the most recent and had such a spectacular aesthetic style that was used in architecture, fashion, and decoration. The sultans of the Ottoman Empire used to live in places designed and decorated in this aesthetic style as a display of power and magnificence.

As for the design and decoration of our hotel, we wanted our guests to feel like a member of the Ottoman royal family so we based the design of our rooms on the luxury and elegance of the Ottoman palaces. This is harmonized with the modern lifestyle of metropolitan Istanbul. Each room in our hotel is named after one of the most prominent sultan's wives of the Ottoman Empire, to remind our guests that where they are staying is a reimagination of a royal residence.
